

Mission Statement

The principle mission of the Cuba Police Department is to preserve the peace and good order of the village and Town of Cuba; to protect life and property; to prevent, as far as possible, violations of law; to detect and apprehend all persons violating the laws of the United States, State of New York, and the Village and Town of Cuba in an impartial and fair manner protecting the Constitutional rights of all persons; to safeguard the public health and welfare; to recover stolen property; and to counsel, advise, and refer all persons in need.

This department is a service oriented agency and therefore departmental members must, at all times, work in cooperation with community groups and agencies to ensure adherence to, and attainment of, the above priorities.
